Consent and Commitment to Participation in the German Immersion Program

This application indicates:

- a firm commitment to hosting a German student as a valued member of your family for up to 5 weeks between June and August 2023.
- an understanding that it will be important that English is the main language spoken in the home during the student's stay.
- a willingness to show your host student the city and region, as much as is practicable while she is in Melbourne.
- a commitment to meet the costs of hosting your student, while she is in Australia.
- an acceptance of and sensitivity to the differences in cultural and social norms which will characterise this program. eg. hosting and staying with people of different religions, variation in the legal age for the consumption of alcohol etc.
- permission for your daughter to participate in all aspects of the return trip to Germany for 5.5 weeks in December 2023-January 2024. This will include approximately one week of travel with the PLC group and 4.5 weeks in a host family.
